

HOW MUCH JUSTICE CAN MONEY PURCHASE

The Foundation for the Child Victims of the Family Courts has written extensively about the tragic life, court imposed suffering inflicted on Islam, his mother, a domestic violence victim, married to a highly abusive individual who beat his wife and tortured his children. All facts were thoroughly documented, medically, psychologically, through the police and known known to the court of Passaic County where McVeigh, Wenzel and other Judges went to the greatest lengths to suppress and distort evidence using the resources of Court appointed psychologist (who had little or no background in dealing with children, Paul Dasher. Paul Dasher's dissertation dealt with insurance outcomes - having nothing to do with children. He came to the Passaic County Court and in the informed opinion of the author of all articles on Islam Elkaryoney and his family, Dasher facilitated fraud, payoffs to all court personnel and eventually transfer of Islam and his two younger brothers into the hands of their abuser - Salah Elkaryoney who was alleged to have been the indicted co - conspirator in the death of Anwar Sadat.

Islam made it clear to all of the inept, incompetent, self serving bureaucrats who dealt with Islam that if he was forced into the custody of his father, separated from his mother, he would kill himself.

On Oct. 25th, 2005 Islam Elkaryoney committed suicide by choking himself to death in his bedroom , following dinner with his mother and siblings.

Islam's two younger brothers were transferred to the custody of his father. Abdu, Islam's half brother was sold into adoption, following the termination of parental rights from his mother. Abdu, pictured before Islam's grave fought separation from his mother and father, Islam's second husband, married after her divorce from the father of her three sons.

These children had no hope of ever achieving a safe home environment in their childhood as their wealthy father had the financial resources to buy judicial outcome out of spite and vindictiveness against a woman who dared to fight her brutal treatment and the vicious, torture of her sons.

Salah Elkaryoney hired three certified family court attorneys to counter a Temporary Restraining order filed and approved in family court. When the TRO was challenged, the attorneys for Elkaryoney threatened the fact witness for the defense of mother and children stating that if she testified she would "never practice her profession again". The fact witness who had met with Elkaryoney at her office,with the children's mother and the children, over a period of five hours subsequently had the house where she lived with her child set on fire/burned to the ground. The fire was designated by the police and fire departments as an arson (documents are on file as to the event). The fact witness who gathered evidence against elkaryoney, dasher and all Judges involved in the case was dismissed from the case, that was taken over by Dyfs, who sided with Dasher and agreed to the egregious transfer.

Following Islam's death Elkaryoney was awarded the permission of the court to transfer his two son's to Egypt where they and others feared for their lives upon removal from the US. A story about Elkaryoney published internationally appeared to have resulted in Elkaryoney's sudden departure from the US after he sold his home and businesses. His two sons were sent to live in foster care.

This article is accompanied by some of the court documents to provide some support for the image of the cold, calculated dismantling of the life of a family who loved each other and were consciously, with malice of forethought torn apart by the powers of the alleged corrupt Passaic county court and attendant minion.
