

4/19/2015 - CYBER BULLYING AND ANONYMOUS COMPLAINTS CONSEQUENCES

Adversaries of protective parents, clients of the Foundation who think that they can intimidate our staff with threats, veiled and otherwise are warned that not only will police complaints be filed but court authorities will be notified of threats. Threats will be considered to be symptoms of dangerousness which will be met with demands for court ordered psychiatric evaluations as part of a risk assessment.

The “anonymous” web site posted by Joshua Clark and Christine Sirgent has been sent to the Judge whom has censured Mr. Clark and Ms. Sirgent in the past. In addition to the fact that police incident reports have been filed against both parties.

Karl Hindle of “Rip Off Complaint “ fame was successfully sued in Federal Court by Martin Asatryan, Esq. by complainants for his attempts at identity fraud.

Julia Morelli, mother of an accused domestic violence abuser who faces numerous charges for alienation and custodial interference contacted the Foundation's twenty four hour hot line to make violent verbal threats against Foundation staff. Julia Morelli was reported to the police who have filed an incident report against her to be followed by further charges and a demand for a risk assessment on the level of dangerousness of Mr. Morelli whom has threatened other experts defending his ex wife and children.
